DECEMBER 2018

The Light of Christ Shines Through Us

Jesus said, “I am the light of the world.” He is proclaimed to be the light which came into the world and shone in darkness; and the darkness did not overcome it.

Ever since the end of Daylight Savings Time at the beginning of November, I have been particularly aware of how dark it gets early in the evening. By the end of the work day, the sun is down. There is something really tiring about going home in darkness at the end of the day. The darkness feels oppressive. It weighs on me and makes me feel worn out. I think back to those summer days when it was still light well past eight o'clock in the evening. There's a buoyancy to the longer, summer days that is missing this time of year. Now as we prepare to slog through December, we brace for the continued shortening of the days, each day, day by day, growing darker and darker.

The shrinking light this time of year begs for a remedy. The shorter, darker days call out for some kind of relief. How do we combat the darkness? We turn on a light, of course. We are blessed in the modern world to have such conveniences. Too dark? Flip a switch. However, if we take the darkness as a metaphor, if we see the contrast between dark and light as representing the battle between evil and good, or at least representing ignorance and enlightenment, we ask the same question and receive a slightly different answer. How do we combat darkness—in our lives, in the world around us, in the struggles of humanity? We turn to the light!

Advent is the season in which we recognize darkness and proclaim the Light. The natural light fades. Our lectionary calls to mind apocalyptic imagery about the end of the world. We long for relief from the effects of sin and seek divine wisdom. Advent is a season of hope, of joyful expectation, of looking forward while looking back. We remember the first coming of Jesus in his humility, while adopting a posture of anticipation for his second coming in glory. All the while we acknowledge God's presence in the world today and in our lives.

As each week passes and we approach the darkest day of the year on the winter solstice, we light one more candle on our Advent wreath. Such a simple act of hope and faith. We say to the world and to ourselves that we know the darkness is there and that it impinges on our lives, but that we nevertheless seek the light of Christ to bear us up, to open our eyes, to show us how much God loves us. Lighting that candle is an act of insurgence against the forces of darkness which surround us and which lay claim to this world. The darker the days get, the brighter our wreath. The more the darkness lays siege, the more we depend on Jesus, the light of the world.

This time of year, our society places a lot of emphasis on helping others through donations to charity. I can think of a couple of explanations for this that may seem cynical. The end of the year is the last chance to get a tax deduction. Maybe people feel guilty for spending so much on Christmas or eating so much around the holidays. The less cynical explanation is that they want to spread the light the best they can. It makes us feel good to help others and to spread the light. It can give us that buoyant feeling we're missing.

This Advent season, as we light our humble candles against the encroaching darkness, may we also spread the light and joy of the Gospel through our actions and our words. And may we all remember that it is in the deepest darkness when Christ is born. The Light of the World shines on!

A FESTIVAL OF LESSONS AND CAROLS

Sunday, December 16, 5:00 p.m., Reception following

St. Andrew's Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols is patterned after the Christmas Eve service held in King's College Chapel, Cambridge. The King's College Festival was introduced in 1918 and was first broadcast in 1928. It is now broadcast to millions of people around the world and has become a staple of Episcopal churches in the United States. In the service, readings are followed by carols and anthems from the Youth and Adult choirs and carols sung by the congregation. This year, in keeping with the King's College Chapel tradition, we have invited readers prominent for their contributions in various aspects of our State College Community to participate in the service. Music includes works by Ralph Vaughan Williams, Morten Lauridsen, Judith Koontz, Daniel Kantor, John Horman, Ian Higginson, Charles Wood, and Boris Ord.

A FESTIVAL OF NINE LESSONS AND CAROLS

Following our own St. Andrew's tradition, Parish Life will host a festive reception for all in Canterbury Hall This is usually our biggest, most beloved party of the year, so be sure you are a part of it! You can contribute by donating food or money for the reception, or by signing up to set up or clean up. Click HERE or contact Julie Kwasnica if you can help.

VESTRY UPDATE, Rick Hoover, Clerk of the Vestry November 13, 2018

The November vestry meeting was held on Tuesday, November 13. Operating expenses for the month of October exceeded income putting the net operating income for the year back into the red. Vestry urges each and every one of us to meet our regular pledge commitments in order to allow St. Andrew's to fully provide for the many ministries of the parish. Should you not be able to participate in worship services in person, your contributions may be sent to the church office care of Mary Andrew or made directly online through the church website at www.standrewsc.org. Regularly meeting your pledge commitment greatly helps the church's financial picture and allows St. Andrew's to continue doing God's work through regular worship, education, and outreach to the community.

The 2019 stewardship program is underway, and many pledge commitments have already been returned. If you have not yet made your pledge to support St. Andrew's in 2019, please prayerfully consider making a pledge commitment. Contributions made without a pledge commitment are, of course, greatly appreciated, but pledge commitments allow the vestry and finance committee to plan for the upcoming year.

Please reserve Sunday evening, January 27, 2019, on your calendars as the date for the Annual Parish Meeting.

Rick Hoover
Clerk of the Vestry

Stewardship 2019

Time ✠ Talent ✠ Treasure

To date we have received 111 pledges for a total of $310,750. This represents 69% of our $450,000 goal - we still have a way to go.

If you have not yet responded, please consider what you are able to pledge for the coming year and bring your pledge card (time and talent, too) to church on Sunday to put in the offering plate or return it in the envelope provided. Extra cards are available in the Narthex. New this year, you may also make your pledge and payments online.

The bounty we enjoy is rightly understood as the bounty and blessings of God. However you decide to make your pledge and in whatever amount, we thank you for your commitment to the future of St. Andrew's.

ST. ANDREW'S FINANCIAL REPORT

October 2018

		Total for	% of	2018
	September	2018	Budget	BUDGET
Parishioner Contributions *	$ 26,108	$ 385,867	82%	$ 468,295
Total Monthly Income	$ 29,837	$ 421,422	81%	$ 517,626
Monthly Expense	$ 49,520	$ 435,373	84%	$ 517,626
Surplus (Deficit)	$ (19,683)	$ (14,351)		(14,926)

October is showing a deficit, and some of this was anticipated because income from pledges was not going to be sufficient for the projected expenses. Most of the excess expense for the year is due to repairs and maintenance costs, including utilities. We still have a remainder in savings from last year to cover some of the expected shortfall, and the budget also included a transfer from the General Endowment fund to cover excess expenses if necessary. Please consider the needs of our dear old buildings when making your pledge.

*Includes pledges, plate offerings, and identified plate offering, plus special holiday offerings.
Sue Stephenson, Treasurer

CHILDREN AND YOUTH

Happy Advent, the time of waiting and watching! It's wonderful as a child – or as an adult, let's be honest - to watch the world fill up with lights as the December days tick by. There's so much beauty. With lights draping buildings and trees, there are visual reminders everywhere we go this month about how God comes to us as light in the darkness.

Enjoy your Advent wreaths this month, your Advent calendars, the Advent chains from church. Start it all off by coming to our parish Advent event Sunday December 2nd, where we'll work together on crafts for ourselves and others. We'll also have Advent wreaths and candles available to purchase (for a small donation), as well as simple family liturgies to use at home with your Advent wreaths.

And don't miss our celebration of St. Nicholas on Sunday, December 9th at the 10:00 service with a children's sermon and special appearance by St.

Nicholas himself! When my boys were little, I was fascinated by the historical St. Nicholas. I found a really special picture book about him – Kay Tutt's And Now We Call Him Santa Claus, a very simple but effective connection between the real person and our present-day mythical figure. If you're interested in St. Nicholas, check out the St. Nicholas Center website at www.stnicholascenter.org. It's full of stories, games, artwork, and activities to share.

Find a way to remind your kids that Jesus is the gift we are celebrating on Christmas! If you have any family practices around Advent that you'd like to share, please email me (Kathy at youth@standrewsc.org)!

YOUTH

Pilgrim Pie Sale

Thank you so much for buying our pies! We hope you liked them. We had a pretty good time making them.

Young and old honed their baking skills! When do you usually get the chance to make a pecan pie fifteen times in a row? Pilgrim parents Susan Dawson and Julie Wunz did an excellent job making all the ingredients come together. Profits go to the 2019 pilgrimage to Arizona!

Diocesan Retreat

Ainsley Paulsen, Bailey Greenland, Bryson Christopher, Nat Hickner, and Simon Murphy and Zach Paulsen spent the weekend at Camp Mt. Luther near Mifflinburg learning about Presiding Bishop Curry's Way of Love (and maybe having a couple snowball fights) at the Diocese of Central Pennsylvania's Youth Retreat. St. Andrew's Kelley Paulsen was co-coordinator.

ADULT FORMATION

"He sees you when you're sleeping, he puts gold in your shoes..." Wait, what? December 6 is the feast day of the real Old Saint Nick – Nicholas of Myra, patron saint of children and pawnbrokers, a Turkish bishop who lived at the turn of the fourth century. We'll look at the stories and legends that survive about St. Nicholas' life, explore customs for St. Nicholas Day from around the Christian world, and see how St. Nicholas turned into Santa Claus!

OUTREACH

IHS Wishing Well Campaign

We have all celebrated the bravery of our dear rector, who went Over the Edge for Interfaith Human Services last month! Successful as that fund-raiser was, the needs of the people in Centre County continue to rise. The cost of housing and home heating is up again, and the health care situation is not improving. IHS must continue its work. With the support of over 30 faith communities in Centre County IHS offers professional case workers to counsel those in need, help with winter heating costs, manage money for those unable to receive their own support checks, and provide furniture service for those transitioning to new housing. Each Advent IHS rings the bell for their wishing well campaign. As we have done for the last several years, St. Andrew's will staff the wishing well outside Meyer Dairy. We are scheduled for Tuesday, December 4 and Wednesday, December 5 from 9:00 a.m. until closing at 10:00 p.m. We like to have 2 people for each one-hour shift. To sign up use or click on this link: <http://bit.ly/IHSBellRinger>. It's a fun activity for families or friend to share, and you are doing good for those in need.

COMMUNITY CAFÉ

First, we would like to thank everyone who volunteered to help make the annual Thanksgiving Dinner at the Community Cafe an enormous success. Over 200 meals were served and a lovely time was had by all surrounded by great food and even better company.

Next, we would like to invite all volunteers and their families to a celebration of Café volunteers on December 9, 2018, at 6:30 pm in Canterbury Hall. We will start with a potluck dinner and move on to a brainstorming and planning session for 2019. It has been a couple of years since we had a gathering of all volunteers and it is high time we hear from you how the Café is doing.

The Cafe will provide main dishes that are heavy on protein, so we are asking for side dishes and desserts to complete the meal. We will have also beverages on hand, including adult beverages, but feel free to bring your own.!

This meeting will serve also as an introduction of the newly-formed Board of Directors. As the Café has grown in complexity, it has become apparent that a more formal organization is needed to insure that the Café will survive long-term. Our newly-formed Board of Directors consists of five long-term Café volunteers, plus Café Executive Director Ron Rovanseck and St. Andrew's Rector Jeffrey Packard. These Board members are charged with overseeing the continued success of the Community Café.

If you would like to volunteer at the Community Cafe, please contact Ron Rovanseck at rrovanseck@pacewater.com for information about specific tasks, teams and duties. The Cafe serves a hearty meal every Thursday from 5 pm - 7 pm. The meal is free and all are welcome. Donations are accepted but they are never expected.

Founded by St. Andrew's member, Judy Moore, the State College flute choir, Toot-in-Common, will perform a Seasonal Concert at St. Andrew's on Monday, December 3. We welcome you to hear "North Star Overture," a musical impression of stars coming out at night; "Flutes of Nature," a charming, light-hearted work with unusual time signatures; "Adagio for Strings," an adaptation of Samuel Barber's moving piece; and "Silver Celebration," an upbeat composition.

A free will offering will be accepted to support Toot-in-Common. A reception will follow the performance.

LONGEST NIGHT SERVICE

Friday, December 21 / 7:00 p.m.
State College Presbyterian Church,
132 W. Beaver Avenue

A service for those who are hurting this holiday season - Longest Night, or Blue Christmas, services offer special recognition of the struggles that many people face during Advent and Christmas. It's a seasonal paradox: a time when we feel we are supposed to celebrate hope, love, joy and peace, and yet a time that may elicit depression and sadness.

Candles, meditative music, psalms of lament, prayers for healing, and acts of remembrance are often elements of the service.
