What Is God Bringing Forth?

Last fall my spiritual director asked me a question that made me think. She asked, "What do you think God is bringing forth during this pandemic?" Spiritual directors love to ask questions like that. We had been talking about one of the millions of ways that life in general and parish life in particular had been affected by the pandemic. Since we were about to enter the season of Advent, the wording of her question seemed apt. The image of pregnancy and the invisible growth and development of God's Word incarnate within young Mary, called to mind a God who works silently and mysteriously to bring about his will, and can even work through the chaos we have all experienced in the past year to create something new and good. The question and the concept of looking for God at work around us really stuck with me.

I have put that question to the parish staff for discussion in a staff meeting. I have asked the same question for discussion among the vestry. In each case, it yielded some fascinating conversation. The question has had such an abiding hold on me I finally decided to ask it to everyone. How can you ask everyone a provocative question that invites them to reflect on all the craziness of the past year and endeavor to find God at work amid the events of the world? Answer: Have a poetry contest!

See this issue of our newsletter for more information about the poetry contest, but in a nutshell, submissions will be accepted in March and April, judged in May, and announced in June. We will have a reading of the winners and selected others during the Arts Festival this year.

This poetry contest gives us an opportunity to engage in public theology, pastoral care on a massive scale, and evangelism. It is an exercise in public theology because it gets people thinking and talking about God. Obviously, not everyone will approach the question in the same way, but the process of looking for God at work and then expressing that in an artistic way is the heart of theology. The events of 2020 - disease, economic devastation, social injustice, politics, etc.—have been traumatic. We will all be processing the emotions caused by these events for some time. Asking the question and giving folks an outlet for their response is a kind of pastoral care that kick starts the processing and integration of these complex emotions. Who knows, reading someone else's poetry may be healing as well. And finally, I call it evangelism because the contest is sponsored by a church. It not only invites people to interact with our parish through our web page and social media, but it may lead to deeper engagement with essential questions of faith. It gives us the chance to engage with people who may be open to the message of love, healing, and mercy we share.

I hope you feel inspired by the question. I hope you pause and reflect on your own experiences of the past year and the experiences of our nation and the world. I hope you wrestle with the ways in which God may be bringing forth something new, something exciting, something unexpected. Whether or not you write or submit a poem, I hope that you join me in this powerful reflection process. This question assumes that God is always present and always active. If you accept that premise, it becomes our job to figure out what God is up to and join in the effort.

VESTRY UPDATE, Kevin Lowe, Clerk of the Vestry

February 2021

The vestry met on Tuesday, January 12, remotely, using Zoom. The vestry is grateful for the 2021 pledges that have been received up to this point. The ministries of St. Andrew's would not exist without your continued generosity. We invite all parishioners to prayerfully discern their financial gifts to the parish and, if you have not pledged yet, to fill out your pledge card as soon as possible. You can also make your pledge online through the Realm platform. If you have questions or need assistance or a pledge card, please contact the office.

The January vestry meeting was the final meeting for our outgoing members who have completed their terms: Christina Ford, Greg Loviscky, Kevin Lowe, and Kathryn Yahner. A very big thank you again to them, and thanks to those parishioners who have stepped up to run for the open seats.

Much of the meeting was spent in a discussion about the pandemic, its effects on the parish, and what God may be bringing forth during this time. Vestry members discussed things they have learned, things they think the parish should continue, and things the parish might want to do differently going forward. Many vestry members expect online offerings and hybrid services and meetings to be a permanent part of our ministry going forward, regardless of pandemic conditions. In addition to the discussion, vestry dealt with some financial matters, particularly relating to surplus funds left over from 2020. Finally, vestry also appointed Grace Pilato and Scott Thomas to the Community Café Board and was pleased to endorse Kevin Barron for his Ordination to the Diaconate.

Vestry meetings are held on the second Tuesday of the month and are always open to all parishioners. Please contact me (kevinlowe33@gmail.com) for the Zoom link prior to the meeting if you would like to attend. Approved vestry minutes are available on our website ("Clergy, Staff & Vestry" under the "About Us" tab). IX. Budget Report (Linda Mace)

- We ended 2020 with a significant surplus; vestry set $20,000 aside as a surplus fund for 2021.
- We are not yet at our projected 2021 pledge amount; as of last Sunday our pledge amount was at $385,448.
- Receipts from 2020 actually exceeded pledge amounts, so we remain optimistic.
- We continue to meet our Fair Share commitment to the diocese.
- For 2021, not many changes to the 2020 budget have been made.
 - Worship: altar care budget removed (surplus for last year); flower budget reduced
 - Utilities: Costs have remained essentially static; insurance and safety monitoring are slightly more expensive
 - Administrative: E-giving costs; staff costs increase, but outside staff costs reduced
 - PPP loan funds continue to be held as a surplus 2021 budget is constructed with a $16,000 deficit which we will continue to monitor

X. Rector's Report

- Vestry placed the strategic planning process on hold in early summer, but hopefully will resume again in the near future
- Keeping up the community of St. Andrew's continues to be challenging under the pandemic
- But there have been positive aspects as well: budget contributions, stewardship of PM and Café, prayer, parishioners keeping in touch with each other
- Flexibility of the staff has been very impressive: learning how to use digital tools, video editing, adapting educational programs, going with the flow
- Major questions to consider:
 - What will we want to keep from this time?
 - What will we want to let go of?
 - What is God bringing forth during this time?
 - Is God bringing forth something new for us as a parish?
 - Doing public theology: Upcoming poetry contest (chapbook and Arts Fest), inviting others outside of St. Andrew's to contribute

Blessing and adjournment, 7:20 p.m.

CLIMATE, CATASTROPHE, AND FAITH

A three-part series from Philip Jenkins

Climate is the missing dimension in understanding religion, past, present and future. Repeatedly through history, the world has been subject to severe climate-driven shocks, which have resulted in famine, disease, violence, social upheaval, and mass migration. Commonly, such episodes have been understood in religious terms, through the language of apocalypse, millennium, and Judgment. In response, different societies have often responded through religious forms, for instance by spawning new religious movements and revivals, or persecuting and expelling religious minorities. Such eras have redrawn the world's religious maps and created the global concentrations of believers as we know them today. Philip Jenkins will tell the story of how climate change has reshaped faith and faiths, and what that portends for the near future.

LENT MATERIALS FOR ALL PARISHIONERS!

Reserve by Friday February 12 (youth@standrewsc.org)

Pick-up Day Sunday, February 21

4 - 5 p.m. at the Fraser Street Lobby entrance

This is a very fitting year to focus on going deeper into God's presence during Lent! With that in mind, we are providing Lenten Micropractices from Vibrant Church Communications and a Lent Bag. Here is a description from the website:

"Lent is a 40 day season of preparation for the resurrection of Jesus. In our Lenten Micropractices, you'll find a new practice to guide you each day on your journey of preparation. Some practices can be done on the spot, some during the day, and others will take some time and/or prep work.

Traditionally, there are three pillars of Lent: praying, fasting, and alms giving, which come to us from Matthew 6:1-18. Our micropractices rotate through these themes, along with additional practices that don't fit neatly in one of those categories ("more").

A micropractice is a small spiritual practice. Instead of engaging the same spiritual practice throughout Lent, the micropractices are meant to give a sample across many different styles of practices. Some are active, some are reflective. They will make you think, take action, connect with God and others, and live into your Christian life."

Each practice is printed on a beautiful card to display in your home. We will print cards for you, provide stand up clips, and collect various objects that are called for in the practices in a Lent bag!

These practices are simple and meaningful, and truly will work for all ages! Please let Kathy know if you would like a bag by Friday February 12 so she can prepare the right amount! youth@standrewsc.org.

Drop by the church at the glass Fraser St. doors on Sunday February 21 (the first Sunday of Lent) from 4-5pm to pick up your Lent bag and micropractice cards!

EPISCOPAL RELIEF AND DEVELOPMENT HOPE CHESTS

If you pick up a bag of Lent Materials (see above,) a Hope Chest will be included. If you would like to pick up one separately, they will be available in the office.

During Lent, please consider how you might use these to collect money for Episcopal Relief and Development. We will gather the boxes after Easter and send a donation from our parish to ERD. To learn more about ERD, go to www.episcopalrelief.org.

LENTEN PROGRAM

Wednesdays, Feb. 24-Mar. 24
7 p.m. on Zoom

The churches of the Altoona Convocation (a subdivision of our diocese of which we are a part) are doing a cooperative Lenten program this year. The meetings will take place on Zoom Wednesday evenings during Lent. Former Archbishop of Canterbury Rowan Williams' book Meeting God in Mark: Reflections for the Season of Lent will be the basis of this program. The clergy of our convocation will take turns leading the discussions. The Zoom link will be made available closer to the first session.

Please plan to join us for this reflective look at the gospel of Mark. Then, on Monday of Holy Week, March 29, we will have a reading of the entire book of Mark's gospel on Zoom.

Lenten Meditations 2021 Episcopal Relief and Development

AS LENT APPROACHES THIS YEAR, WE LAMENT.

We lament all those whose lives were lost during the COVID-19 pandemic. We also lament other losses that include jobs and livelihoods, the opportunity to travel, to visit loved ones, and the ability to worship together in our church buildings. Because of the magnitude of these collective losses, we decided to focus on lament as the theme for the 2021 Lenten Meditations.

The Lenten Meditation booklet is completely virtual this year as churches continue to gather virtually. You can view or download the booklet here.

If you would like to subscribe to receive these meditations daily in your inbox, please subscribe here.

St. Andrew's Bracket Competition

Brackets due February 17, $5 entry fee to benefit Parishioners' Ministry

In this non-traditional Lenten devotion from Forward Movement, 32 saints compete in a tournament-style, single elimination bracket. People vote for their favorites and the winner is awarded the "coveted Golden Halo." This year's competition includes well-known saints like Absalom Jones and Joan of Arc and the less familiar Evagrius the Solitary and Tarcisius. At each stage of the competition, you can learn biographical information, quotes, quirks, and legends about each of the saints with some humor and friendly competition thrown in for good measure.

You can find more information, download a bracket, and vote online at the website above, HOWEVER...

This year, we also challenge you to take part in our own St. Andrew's competition. Download and print a bracket from the website (or we can provide one.) Complete it and return it to the office by February 17 with your entry fee of $5. The brackets will be scored and updates provided as the competition progresses. The eventual winner will receive bragging rights and a small gift. The money collected will be donated to Parishioners' Ministry.

Invite friends and family to join in; it is a lot of fun, educational, and will help support an important ministry of our church.

Game on!
