Cultivating Joy

*He is risen, he is risen! Tell it out with joyful voice;
He has burst this three days' prison; Let the whole wide earth rejoice:
Death is conquered, we are free, Christ has won the victory.*

The great fifty days are here! It is the Easter season. We now celebrate a sustained season of joy for the resurrection. Joy is a spiritual discipline, at least as important as the disciplines we employed during Lent. It may be difficult to imagine fifty days of joy. After all, we can't be joyful all the time, can we? If we equate joy with happiness, that is true. We cannot be happy all the time. Happy is kind of mood related. Our moods change all the time. Joy, at least in this sense, is something that can abide and become foundational for our whole life. It can infuse everything we do no matter what mood we happen to be in. Even when we are sad, we can hold onto a profound joy that will sustain us through dark times. But how do we cultivate joy?

Here are three ways you can cultivate joy this Easter season. Pray. Give. Do.

Back during Lent, we talked about creating a regular prayer discipline. In that context, prayer sounds like a chore, something you should do, but something you don't really enjoy doing, like eating kale. However, regular prayer can help to cultivate joy by turning us outward toward others, and by forcing us to think about those things for which we are most thankful. Join us for Morning Prayer on Zoom Monday through Saturday at 8:30. You will find a small group of folks who readily share both joys and sorrows through prayer. We often talk about what a great way to start the day it is.

Jesus talked about how it is more blessed to give than to receive. That may sound like a marketing campaign, but there is deep truth in it. Sharing our abundance makes us more aware of the needs of others and it makes us more aware of the blessings we have in our lives. Our Parishioners' Ministry (PM) is running an "Easter Blessings" campaign. Any money given to PM will be given away, mostly to those outside our parish, to people in need. We partner with other local charities to vet the recipients and usually combine our gift with money from multiple sources to meet the need, whether it be rent, car repairs, utilities, or doctor bills. Giving, even a small amount, helps us to acknowledge the abundance of God's grace and the sheer joy of being able to share it.

There is no shortage of opportunities to do through volunteering. Our parish has many ministries that could use your help. All around our community there are organizations who need volunteers. Giving of yourself and your time makes you feel good. Seeing the results of your work is satisfying. Doing is a great way to both cultivate and share joy. So, volunteer today. Consider our Community Café or one of the Sunday worship related ministries, like altar guild or hosting fellowship hour.

Joy is a gift from God. It flows directly from God's presence in our lives and God's blessings. This season of resurrection let's cultivate joy in our lives by praying, giving, and doing in the name of Jesus, the crucified and resurrected one.

March and April 2023

The Vestry met on March 14, 2023. Vestry approved a motion for Community Cafe to participate in the Centre Gives 2023 fundraiser, as it has in previous years. The vestry also approved a motion to accept the Ad Hoc Committee’s recommendations to close the budget gap for this year with funds from the surplus budget.

There was no vestry meeting in April due to the Easter observance. Vestry, however, voted by email vote to approve emergency funding for the repair of the front steps, side steps and 2nd floor men’s room ceiling. The work is proceeding.

The vestry meets on the second Tuesday of the month. The next vestry meeting will be on May 9 in Room 324. All parishioners are welcome.

Year One and Looking Ahead

Our campus ministry, Episcopal at Penn State, celebrated the end of the semester with a cook-out at my house. The group conducted an election for new leadership, and I am pleased to report that Rick Yoder, a PhD student in history, was elected President and Alex Coberly, a graduate student in Art History, was elected treasurer. Their first official act was to ‘re-up’ the student organization with OrgCentral on campus (ah, the bureaucracy, even on-line!). So, we survived the year as a campus ministry, and have a second one to come. That is no small achievement. I am grateful for all the students who showed up this year – so many gifted and interesting and curious people. What a blessing for the Church!

As an end-of-semester ‘gift, I want to share what our new president, Rick, posted on Facebook upon learning he would be part of the leadership of Episcopal at Penn State next year. It is an exploration of ways to grow the episcopal branch of campus ministry. It is funny – satirical even – but it also expresses nicely his gifts and our group’s vibe; funny, and irreverent, but also serious about our heritage and eager to continue to grow as the episcopal/Anglican branch of the Jesus movement at Penn State!

From Rick Yoder:

Ideas to grow the Episcopal student ministry:

- Daily Office
  - Candle-light Compline
  - Walk-in Eucharistic adoration
  - Pilgrimage to Jerusalem
  - Tent Revival
  - Snake-Handling
  - Reviving the Cult of le S. Diacre Pâris
  - Total consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Our
  - Lady of Llanthonye
  - Adoption of Puritan Names in Religion
  - Folded chasubles (on T-shirts)
  - Veneration of relics, but only from Protestants
  - Horoscopes
- ???
  - Hellfire preaching against transphobia and also college athletics
  - Wine
  - Public screenings of "Hinge & Bracket" episodes
  - The Blessing of the Seersucker (Use of K Street)
  - Fresh Expressions
  - Gregorian karaoke
  - Seek status as a Royal Peculiar
  - Lancelot Andrewes caps
  - Deuterocanonical Bible Studies
  - Penitential confraternities
  - Build a Cathedral

(Our 'sad' picture – because not everyone could come to the end of semester cook-out!)

WORSHIP

EVENSONG

Sunday, May 7, 5 p.m.

Church

Reception, 6 p.m., Room 325

Choral
Evensong
at 5pm

On Sunday, May 7, the choir will sing the service of choral evensong. Music will include a Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis by Ralph Vaughan Williams, Preces and Responses by Richard Shephard, and anthems by Guillaume Bouzignac and Malcolm Archer. Organist Gwen Catchen will play music by Paul Bouman and Johann Pachelbel. The Rev. Gene Tucker, rector of St. John's in Huntingdon, will be the officiant.

Prior to the Reformation, prayer in the early evening or late afternoon was known as the Office of Vespers, one of the eight Canonical Hours of the divine office of the Western church. However, in 1549, a prayer book known as the Book of Common Prayer was adopted in the context of the English Reformation. Bishop Thomas Cranmer established the office of Evensong using elements taken from both Vespers and Compline, generally to be conducted in the English language, as was the case with the entire liturgy. Old English speakers translated the Latin word vesperas as æfensang, which became 'evensong' in modern English.

After a series of slight modifications, the office of Evensong took its modern form in the 1662 Book of Common Prayer of the Church of England, a form that is followed very closely throughout the whole of the Anglican and Episcopal Church throughout the world. This is the form used at St. Andrew's.

Evensong, like all forms of liturgical worship, has elements of drama and ritual that nourish the spiritual life of all of us. It is based entirely on elements of Holy Scripture, and it is scripted according to a long history, originating in Judaic and early Christian evening worship. Evensong is traditionally mostly sung by a choir, with the full congregation participating throughout in thoughtful prayer, allowing the music to touch us and to draw us closer to the presence of God.

Please join us for this service. Bring some friends! A reception will follow in Room 325. The next evensong will be at 5 p.m. on Sunday, October 1.

Thank you all so much for welcoming me into the St. Andrew's community!! I'll be graduating this May with my bachelor's in sociology with minors in social justice in education, French and Francophone studies, and education. policy studies and my master's in educational theory and policy. I'm celebrating by going to Ireland for two weeks in May, which I'm super excited about! I am so grateful for all of the support from this community over the last few years!

Nursery Coordinator Needed

This is a paid position. The Nursery Coordinator recruits, trains, schedules, and oversees the volunteers in our Sunday morning nursery. The coordinator also works in the nursery every Sunday along with the volunteers. In the past we have modified the position to be nursery attendant—not including the scheduling and oversight functions. We would prefer to have one person do the whole coordinator job but might be willing to discuss splitting the position again.

If you are interested in the position or have any questions, please contact Fr. Jeff. (rector@standrewsc.org)

“Everything you Ever Wanted to Know About the Episcopal Church But Were Afraid to Ask”

Saturday, May 13

10:30 – noon in the church

On Saturday, May 13, we will meet in the church for a class which tries to cover all the stuff you've been curious about but never had the opportunity to ask someone. This class is part of the soon-to-be-concluded Adult Confirmation class Father Jeff has been teaching, but all are invited. We begin with architecture, cover the obscure titles in the church—what is a Right Reverend Most Honorable anyway?—cover the names for all the stuff we use during church, and give folks lots of chances to ask questions. No need to pre-register; just show up and bring your questions. Note: this class was offered in the past (pre-pandemic). So, if you attended it before, it's the same.

Community Café

Centre Gives

Wednesday, May 10, at 8 a.m. to Thursday, May 11, at 8 p.m.

Online at centregives.org

Search for "The Community Café at St. Andrew's"

For the 4th year in a row, the Community Café at St. Andrew's will participate in Centre Gives, a 36-hour online giving event where the money you donate to your favorite charities will go further because of their stretch pool and the prizes that each individual charity is eligible for.

It is important to note that this year Centre Gives will move from Tuesday-Wednesday to Wednesday-Thursday, so the event begins on May 10 at 8 a.m. and will end on May 11 at 8 p.m.

This change bodes well for the Café. We operate on Thursday, so we will be able to live stream videos of patrons and volunteers (if they choose to participate) who would like to tell what the Café means to them. It will also help folks actually see what the Café is all about.

Centre Gives Fest

Thursday, May 11

5:30 – 9 p.m., Talleyrand Park, Bellefonte

For the first time this year, the Café will participate in Centre Gives Fest. The Café will sponsor a cookie decorating table, so we need two volunteers who are willing to host and supervise the table.

If you are interested, please contact Sharon Rovansek at srovansek@comcast.net.

In addition to decorating cookies, you can enjoy live music, food vendors such as Pizza Mia and Savory Station, and a variety of family-friendly activities from some of your other favorite nonprofits. Join your fellow community members to countdown the final hours of Centre Gives and celebrate with music, food, and fun!

Interfaith Human Services

There are many deserving organizations participating in Centre Gives. After you make your donation to the Community Café, please consider supporting Interfaith Human Services (IHS), a collaboration of 30 congregations in Centre County, PA, including St. Andrew's, who provide programs and services to low-income families in our neighborhoods.

Use the link above for Centre Gives and search for "Interfaith Human Services" to donate.

The everyday, the eternal, and everything in between—ideas for poems are everywhere! During this retreat, we'll focus on generating poems from both the mundane and the miraculous, using—as time permits—the arts (paintings, photographs, movies, music), sacred texts and rituals, nature, news, place, sports, and the medical as springboards. By drafting, revising, and discussing poems in a supportive community, we'll consider how one poetic choice leads to another, each contributing to the work's overall effect. Arrive ready to engage, experiment, write, laugh. Leave with new ideas and strategies for future poems.

Professor of English at Lock Haven University, Marjorie Maddox has published 13 collections of poetry—most recently Transplant, Transport, Transubstantiation (Yellowglen Prize); Begin with a Question (Paraclete Press, International Book Award Winner), and Heart Speaks, Is Spoken For (Shanti Arts), an ekphrastic collaboration with photographer Karen Elias. Her poems are featured in Christian Poetry in America since 1940 (Paraclete Press), edited by Michael Mattix and Sally Thomas. In addition, she has published the short story collection What She Was Saying (Fomite); four children's and YA books—including Inside Out: Poems on Writing and Reading Poems with Insider Exercises (Finalist International Book Awards), A Crossing of Zebras: Animal Packs in Poetry; I'm Feeling Blue, Too! (a 2021 NCTE Notable Poetry Book), and Rules of the Game: Baseball Poems—plus the anthology Common Wealth: Contemporary Poets on Pennsylvania (co-editor) and the literary journal Presence: A Journal of Catholic Poetry (assistant editor). In the Museum of My Daughter's Mind, based on her daughter's paintings (www.hafer.work) + works by other artists, is forthcoming in 2023 (Shanti Arts).
